The Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER) has been studying public policy issues in Alaska since 1961. ISER’s research findings are published in hundreds of reports, books, and periodicals. Publications from the past three years are listed here. Lists of earlier publications are available from our office in the library building on the University of Alaska Anchorage campus (907-786-7710). There is no charge to be put on ISER’s mailing list.

ALASKA REVIEW OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS
Periodicals on topics of broad public interest. No charge for single copies.

- Community Control of Alcohol in Alaska. By Matthew Berman and Teresa Hull. Volume XXXI, No. 1, April 1997. Describes the status of Alaska communities under the state’s local option law for alcohol control and summarizes history of community alcohol control in Alaska; includes foldout map showing alcohol status in 250 Alaska communities.

SUMMARIES OF RESEARCH
No charge for single copies.

- “Economic Effects of Management Changes for Kenai River Late-Run Sockeye,” Executive Summary, January 1996. A 12-page summary of a report examining the potential economic effects of increasing the number of sockeye salmon available to sport anglers in the Kenai River.
- “How Would A Road Affect Cordova?” ISER Research Summary No. 57, March 1995. Describes ISER findings about the potential social and economic effects of linking Cordova on Prince William Sound to the state highway system.
- “Who Pays for Alaska’s Schools?” ISER Research Summary No. 56, March 1995. Summarizes state, federal, and local sources of money for Alaska’s urban and rural schools.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS
A variety of special publications.

- Kids Count Alaska 1996. By Norman Dinges and other members of the Kids Count Alaska study team. December 1996. This first databook for the Kids Count Alaska program is part of the national Kids Count program, sponsored by the Annie E. Casey Foundation. The databook reports on the well-being of Alaska’s children under 15 measures, making comparisons among regions and with national averages. 56 pages. No charge while supply lasts.

FISHERIES REPORTS AND NEWSLETTERS
ISER in recent years did several major fisheries studies, and more will be completed in 1997 (see Pending Reports, back page). ISER also continues to be a partner in the Salmon Market Information Service (SMIS), which provides fishermen and others with timely information on Alaska salmon markets. It is sponsored by the Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute and is a joint project of ISER and the Alaska Center for International Business at UAA. The project director is Gunnar Knapp of ISER. For information about SMIS publications listed below and other sources of salmon market data, call the Salmon Market Information Service at 907-786-7750.

SMIS PUBLICATIONS
Salmon Market Bulletin is a four-page newsletter issued eight times a year, providing information on current market conditions.
- Currents: A Journal of Salmon Market Trends is an eight-page newspaper published three times a year, providing in-depth articles about salmon market topics.
Fisheries Reports

The First Year of the Alaska IFQ Program: Surveys of Halibut Quota Shareholders; Sablefish Quota Shareholders; and Halibut and Sablefish Registered Buyers. September 1996. By Gunnar Knapp and Dan Hull. Analysis of surveys asking quota shareholders and fish buyers how the first year of the Individual Fishing Quota (IFQ) program in the halibut and sablefish fisheries affected costs of harvesting and processing, crew size and payments, deliveries of fish, and other factors. Results reported in three documents: halibut shareholders survey report, 138 pages, $14.00; sablefish shareholders survey report, 118 pages, $12.00; registered buyers survey report, 154 pages, $15.00.

Economic Effects of Management Changes for Kenai River Late-Run Sockeye. January 1996. By Sharman Haley, Matthew Berman, Gunnar Knapp, Alexandra Hill, and others. For Alaska Department of Fish and Game. A two-volume report (analysis and technical appendixes) examining the economic gains and losses if fisheries managers allow 200,000 more sockeye salmon past commercial nets in Upper Cook Inlet and into the Kenai River for the benefit of sport anglers. Copies available at no charge while supplies last from the Department of Fish and Game in Anchorage at 907-267-2353. A 12-page summary is available at no charge from ISER.

Client Reports

Reports prepared under contract for public and private organizations. Except as noted, all are available from ISER for costs of copying.

Economic and Fiscal Analyses

The Economic Contribution of the Anchorage International Airport. October 1995. By Scott Goldsmith and Eric Larson. For Anchorage International Airport. An analysis of the jobs and income Anchorage’s international airport creates at the airport and throughout the community. 140 pages, $12.00.

Petroleum

In 1995 and 1996 BP Exploration contracted with ISER to do a series of reports on aspects of the oil industry. While copies last, they are available at no charge from BP’s External Affairs Department in Anchorage (907-561-5111); they are also available from ISER for copying costs, as cited below.

Other Resources

Energy and Utilities

Other Subjects

Papers and Journal Articles

Includes papers, journal articles, and chapters in books and reports.

---

Order Form

ISER, University of Alaska Anchorage • 3211 Providence Drive • Anchorage, AK 99508 • Phone (907) 786-7710 • Fax (907) 786-7739

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>QUANTITY</th>
<th>PUBLICATION TITLE</th>
<th>COST</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

No postage charge for single copies of free publications mailed in the U.S. International orders will be billed at actual costs of postage. All other orders shipped first-class (unless you request otherwise), with postage charges depending on size of order:

- Up to $10.00, add $2.00
- $10.00-$25.00, add $3.00
- $25.01+, add $5.00

SUBTOTAL

POSTAGE

TOTAL AMOUNT

Make checks payable to University of Alaska Anchorage

Please send my order to:  □ Add my name to your mailing list

Print Name ___________________________ Phone Number ___________________________

Business/Organization ___________________________

Address __________________________________________________________

City ___________________ State _______ Zip ___________________________

UAA is an EEO/AA employer and educational institution.

“Implications of Oil Supply Uncertainty on a Small Oil-Producing Regional Economy.” By Scott Goldsmith. In OPEC Review, Autumn 94. Reprints available from ISER at no charge while supply lasts.

PENDING REPORTS AND PAPERS

Economics of Sport Fishing in Alaska. By Scott Goldsmith, Sharman Haley, and Lexi Hill. For the Alaska Department of Fish and Game. Report to be available late summer 1997.
