BP Energy Center,
900 E. Benson Drive
Anchorage, AK

RSVP by November 2nd

- Our guest speaker is Dr. Heather Hudson. Dr. Hudson is the director for the UAA Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER).
- Dr. Hudson comes to UAA following her fellowship as Fulbright Visiting Policy Research Chair at Carleton University in Ottawa, Canada.
- She has conducted research in Alaska, northern Canada, and more than 50 developing countries. In Alaska, she evaluated satellite telemedicine projects, studied the rural telecommunications industry, and assessed universal service policies that support extension of Internet and broadband services to Alaskan villages.
- She holds a Ph.D. in communication research from Stanford University and J.D. from the University of Texas at Austin. Her professional experience includes research on applications and effects of new communications technologies and policies to extend access to communications, particularly in remote and developing regions.
- Dr. Hudson will be speaking on "Rural Broadband: Opportunities for Alaska".
- Lunch will be a hot buffet and is $20 for members and $25 for non-members.
- You can pay at the event or in advance via PayPal. Details are provided on our chapter website at <http://alaska.afceachapter.org>.
- Please RSVP by November 2nd to afcea.alaska@gmail.com.
